

I strong oppose the proposed changes to the Broadcast Owership regulations that will allow media corporations to further expand ownership of multiple media outlets. Commission Michael Powell's recent comments reveal that this FCC push to deregulation is driven by corporate high rollers whose sole interest is in increasing their profit margin. Who protects the public's interest and the public airways? Certainly not Commissioner Powell or this Bush administration.